On behalf of the volunteer organisation SEEDS, a group of 6 Icelanders (5 participants and 1 leader) aged between 17 and 25 will participate in the exciting project “Myths & Legends for Europe” in Italy.

The project is taking place in Capua, in the province of Caserta, during 9 days, and will gather 36 young people and leaders.

When: 18.11– 26.11.2013

Deadline for application: 25.10.2013 (October 25th, 2013).

Theme/aim of the project: "Myths & Legends for Europe" aims at getting a better understanding of Europe and European people by using myths and legends as a tool to understand differences and common aspects of each culture involved in the project.

Our final goal is to create an artwork with all the myths and legends coming from the participating countries.

The project consists in 3 phases:

First, participants will prepare the project, before coming to Italy, by looking for myths and legends for their country.

They will then take part integration and group building activities and non-formal workshops on the topic of the exchange. A trip to Caserta will also be on the schedule.

Finally, with the materials collected before and during the exchange, participants will be asked to create an artwork which will be presented on the last day of the project.

Evaluation: there will be an ongoing evaluation and a final evaluation on the last day of the exchange.

Participating countries: Italy, Latvia, Greece, Hungary, Iceland and Bulgaria.

Number and age of participants: 5 participants aged 18-25 plus a leader.

Costs/expenses: SEEDS has been awarded a grant for the project from the Youth in Action program of the European Union, which will cover costs of board, lodging and 70% of the travel costs up to a maximum of 600 euros and upon presentation of all the proof of expenses (boarding passes, tickets and receipts of your travel from and to Capua) and 100% of their visa cost (if coming from non EU countries).

Food, accommodation, insurance, will be covered by the hosting organization, InformamentisEuropa.
